InPost

September 2022

A number of interesting discussions, impressive management teams and investment opportunities. One company that continues to catch our eye is InPost, the leading e-commerce delivery service platform in Poland with operations across Automated Parcel Machine (APM) delivery, to-door delivery and fulfilment services.

InPost has a growing presence in France as well as the UK. Once you have noticed the lockers, you will see them everywhere and from personal experience, they are so quick and convenient to use which means that you will never want to queue at the post office again!!
